On the morning of my 101th birthday, I received a package in the mail. When I opened it, ....
There was a small box in it.

Opening it, there was a smaller box in it.

There was a box in the smaller box.

Opening it, there was another smaller box in it.

I was tired, but I opened more.

There was a ring which I lost quite a long time ago.

In the end, I remembered my husband who died last year. And I went to the heaven because I was tired.

My husband waited for me there.
